

VILLANOVA UNIVERSITY

FACULTY workshop
SERIES

SPEAKING of SCRIPTURE

INTERFAITH CONVERSATIONS ON TEACHING SACRED TEXTS

A series of faculty workshops on teaching sacred texts featuring distinguished Jewish, Muslim, and Christian scholars

Sponsored by the Villanova Center for Liberal Education and the Villanova Institute for Teaching and Learning

SPRING 2009

Timothy Horner

Gallen Fellow in the Humanities, Villanova Center for Liberal Education, Villanova University

"Paul and the Law"

Friday, January 23

2 - 4 p.m.

Mendel 103

Barbara von Schlegell

The Wright Lecturer in Middle East Studies, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Ursinus College

"Teaching the Koran in Christian Contexts"

Friday, February 20

2:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Mendel 103

Additional Sponsor: Center for Arab and Islamic Studies

Iftekhar Hussain

Chair, Council on American-Islamic Relations Pennsylvania (CAIR PA)

"Tools in the Islamic Jurisprudence Toolbox"

Friday, March 20

2 - 4 p.m.

Mendel 103

Roundtable Discussion

Chair: Bernard P. Prusak

Panelists: Ruth Anolik, Rachel Baard,

Gustavo Benavides, Kevin Hughes,

Silvia Nagy-Zekemi and Kathy Overturf

"The Future of Interfaith Dialogue on Sacred Texts at Villanova"

Friday, April 17

2 - 4 p.m.

Room 132, Auditorium, Driscoll Hall

OPENTO THE PUBLIC