

Intellifit Corp. / Ben Franklin

Technical Justification for FCC Waiver Request

The objective of this project is to examine the scanner system of the Intellifit Corporation in terms of its power, frequency, bandwidth, and antenna operations. The primary task is to show that, using valid arguments based on scientific facts, the system under consideration is not in conflict with the FCC requirements.