IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE FEDERAL DIRECT PLUS LOAN PROCESS

The Federal Direct PLUS Loan is offered by the U.S. Department of Education. A Master Promissory Note (MPN) is required for Federal Direct PLUS Loans. This means that you will be able to request future loans and if approved, not have to sign a new note. If the parent is denied the Federal Direct PLUS Loan after the credit check and the loan is subsequently approved with a cosigner (endorser), the Federal Direct PLUS MPN will only be valid for that loan. A new Federal Direct PLUS MPN must be completed for additional loans.

When this request for a Federal Direct PLUS Loan and Consent to Obtain a Credit Report is received by the Office of Financial Assistance, the application will be checked for completeness of the data. Once the MPN is accepted by the U.S. Department of Education's Common Origination and Disbursement Center (COD), and the student is properly enrolled for the academic period for which the loan is intended, the proceeds of the loan are disbursed to the student's tuition account according to the disbursement policy below.

The MPN may be completed at www.studentloans.gov. You will need your federal PIN number in order to complete the MPN online.

If the credit is not approved, you may choose to seek a cosigner or to cancel the loan and request a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan for the student.

If a credit balance is generated as a result of a Federal Direct PLUS Loan, the refund is sent to the parent borrower.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY FOR A FEDERAL DIRECT PLUS LOAN

To be eligible for a Federal Direct PLUS Loan, the undergraduate student must:

- File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen
- Be matriculated, enrolled at least 6 credits (half-time) and making satisfactory academic progress
- Not be in default on an education loan or owe any education grant refunds
- Be registered with Selective Service, if required

To be eligible for a Federal Direct PLUS Loan, the parent must:

- Be the student's natural parent, adoptive parent, or in some cases, stepparent
- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen
- Not be in default on an education loan or owe any education grant refunds
- Be creditworthy
- Be the endorser of the loan
- The parent may seek an endorser (cosigner) if credit is denied

You may borrow any amount up to the cost of your child's education, minus any other financial aid you receive.

INTEREST RATE

The interest rate for the Federal Direct PLUS Loan is 7.9%.

DISBURSEMENTS

The disbursement of the Federal Direct PLUS Loan will occur in equal disbursements at the start of each term.

REPAYMENT

You will begin repaying your Federal Direct PLUS Loan 60 days after the full amount you have borrowed for a school year has been disbursed. While the student is enrolled in school on at least a half-time basis, you are eligible for an in-school deferment that allows you to postpone payments on your Federal Direct PLUS Loan until the student graduates or drops below half-time status. You must contact Borrower Services at 1-800-848-0979 for information.
