POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE IN PRE-HEALTH PROFESSIONS SCIENCE

Today’s adult students are particularly interested in selecting academic programs that have strong career possibilities, and the plentiful supply of jobs in the growing health care industry provide exciting opportunities for adults who wish to change or enhance their careers. In addition to the job possibilities, adult students are enthusiastic about health sciences-related programs because of the appeal involved with helping others and the excitement of scientific advances in diagnosing and treating disease.

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Pre-Health Professions Science is designed to provide a fundamental education in the sciences that can lead to entrance into schools of the health professions and to a wide array of careers.
