Data Governance

Current Initiatives in Progress:

- Data Classification Matrix and Data Retention Policy – Department meetings continue in collaboration with the Office of Information Security to classify data elements in each area and review current/future retention periods. We worked with 23 business units/departments over the last year and will engage with 14 more to kick off the Data Classification and Retention review.
- Data Literacy – We are doing small group trainings for Data Insights users and incorporating data definitions into dashboards whenever possible. We will help you locate the data you need and design visualizations that aid in decision-making and ultimately data literacy.
- External Survey Reporting Guidelines – Please refer to these when reporting data externally.
- Currently Approved Governance Policies:

 - Data Integrity and Integration
 - Data Access, Usage and Sharing

Current Higher Ed Topics

Carnegie Classification revised its methodology to classify U.S. higher education institutions for their 2025 release. Three classifications will be released in 2025 – Institutional, Student Access, and Earnings and Research Activity. The Research Activity classification, the first of the three, was released on February 13. The new research activity classification framework includes three categories: R1 (Very High Spending and Doctorate Production), R2 (High Spending and Doctorate Production), and Research Colleges & Universities—based on research spending and doctorate production. Villanova remains in the R2 category, signifying high research spending and doctorate production.

Dashboard Spotlight

The Undergraduate Student Movement Dashboard is a sankey chart that visualizes the flow of students transitioning between academic majors over time, with wider bands representing higher numbers of students switching or staying in fields.

Did You Know?

What's the difference between Census and Live Data?

"Census" is the collection of data at a specific point in time. At VU, Census is also referred to as "Freeze" data because in a sense it is frozen in time. "Live" data refers to end-of-term values for the prior terms and as of last update or last evening for current/future terms, based on the reporting tool being used.
